The information is accessible only by such company employees who need the information based on their role. Only an authorized user of the data file can create new users and maintain user information. Technical maintenance of the Orion Server is provided by Fujitsu. There is a central platform for disclosure in the UK which companies must use. Data is submitted to https://www.abpi.org.uk/ethics/ethical-responsibility/disclosure-uk/ via a secure access controlled portal.
9. Right of access and realization of the right of access	The data subject shall have the right of access, after having supplied sufficient search criteria, to the data on himself/herself in the personal data file, or to a notice that the file contains no such data. The controller shall at the same time provide the data subject with information of the sources of data in the file, on the uses for the data in the file and the destinations of disclosed data. The data subject who wishes to have access to the data on himself/herself, as referred to above, shall make a request to this effect to the person in charge at controller by a personally signed or otherwise comparably verified document.
10. Right to object to processing	In case the legal basis for processing the personal data is the legitimate interests of the controller, the data subject has the right to object to processing on grounds relating to his or her particular situation.

	In case the data subject wishes to use its above-mentioned right, he or she shall make a request to this effect to the person in charge at the data controller by a personally signed or otherwise comparably verified document in writing to the representative of the data controller named under section 2. hereinabove.
11. Rectification, restriction of processing and erasure	The data subject may notify Orion Pharma (UK) Ltd of changes in his/her data as described in the information notice found at the internet address provided under section 6. hereof. uk.disclosure@orionpharma.com A controller shall, on its own initiative or at the request of the data subject, without undue delay rectify, erase or supplement personal data contained in its personal data file if it is erroneous, unnecessary, incomplete or obsolete as regards the purpose of the processing. The controller shall also prevent the dissemination of such data, if this could compromise the protection of the privacy of the data subject or his/her rights. The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing, in case the data subject has contested the accuracy of the processed personal data, if the data subject has claimed that the processing is unlawful and the data subject has opposed the erasure of the personal data and has requested the restriction of their use instead; if the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; or if the data subject has objected to processing pursuant to the EU General Data Protection Regulation pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject. Where processing has been restricted based on the above grounds, the data subject who has obtained restriction of processing shall be informed by the controller before the restriction of processing is lifted. If the controller refuses the request of the data subject of the rectification of an error, a written certificate to this effect shall be issued. The certificate shall also mention the reasons for the refusal. In this event, the data subject may bring the matter to the attention of the Data Protection Ombudsman. The controller shall undertake reasonable measures to notify the erasure to the controllers to whom the data has been disclosed and who are processing the data. The controller shall notify the rectification to the recipients to whom the data have been disclosed and to the source of the erroneous personal data. However, there is no duty of notification if this is impossible or unreasonably difficult. Requests for rectification shall be made by contacting the representative of the controller named under section 2. hereof.
